New England Roleplaying Organization, an international network of more than 40 Live Action Roleplay. Members of NERO create playable characters whom they bring to life through costuming, speech, actions and mannerism. Your only limit is your own imagination! with four base classes, Thirteen races and dozens of skills to choose from the possibilities are truly endless.

Put down those dice and join for a weekend of adventure! Replenish yourself or warm by the fire of the local tavern, study the way of magics of both earth and the stars at the local Celestial and Earth magic Guilds, build a workshop to enhance your craft, join the militia, become a knight, or raise an undead army. Scour the woods for adventure or rescue a damsel in distress. Your character's attitudes, ambitions and history are yours to define.
